President Viv Rainbow

At our last meeting (19/06/23) President Viv welcomed all Rotarians and our Guest Speaker, Affan Shahzad, our RYLA representative and his parents and brother to the meeting. Viv also welcomed Leigh Dyson back after an extended break.

Tas reported that we only have 20 bags of sheep manure left - a collection day has been set for Saturday 1st July at Connorville at 9:00am. A group from JCP Youth will also be in attendance. Anyone who is not as strong/healthy as they used to be but can open and tie bags would be more than welcome. Usual BBQ will follow.

Leigh reported that our Food Van insurance claim is still unresolved, but hopeful of a early settlement.

Our Guest Speaker, Affan Shalzad, pictured here, who was our representative at this year's RYLA. He gave us a brief history of his life and advised that he is a brilliant cricketer. He attended Launceston Grammar. He is now a Medical Student at Uni.

He gave a comprehensive report on his RYLA Experience stating he was much more confident after the week. An excellent presentation by a very talented young man.

George Lockwood reminds all members who have Annual Report that he requires them by the 1st July
