President Jan Beams

At our last meeting President Elect Liz Bulman, standing in for president Jan, welcomed all Rotarians and Guests, particularly District Governor Mike Patten and District Governor Nominee Craig Perkins. She reported her first day as a RYDA presenter had been completed and reminded the meeting that our club is rostered to assist on Wednesday 27th at Symmons Plains. Liz mentioned that plans are progressing for Carols by Candlelight which is scheduled for Sunday 17th Dec at the Silverdome. She further added that she will be attending the Youth Forum being conducted at Deloraine on Sat 23rd September. Treasurer George mentioned plans for Soggy Bottom '24 are progressing with the date now set for Sunday 25th Feb at the Cataract Gorge swimming pool. He also reminded the meeting that the AMC Open Day is scheduled for Sun 1st Oct, and that participants from this year's event have been invited to tour the facility. The opportunity exists for club members, family and friends to participate. Rotarian Ted Burton updated the meeting on the successful installation of Sky Hydrants on Vanuatu and the ongoing involvement of Shelley Newell who has recently travelled to Vanuatu. She is currently coordinating the transfer of redundant medical equipment from LGH to be containerised and shipped to the island nation. Rotarian Leigh Dyson spoke to the meeting following up on the request to a previous meeting for heavy duty furniture, describing his contact with a local family in need. DG Mike Patten's address to the meeting included issues of Mental Health, loans empowering of Girls and Women in Africa, supporting raising awareness of family violence. The District Conference and Expo will be at the Princess Wharf Shed on Hobart's waterfront, Saturday March 2nd March 2024.
