President Jan Beams

At our last meeting President-Elect Liz welcomed all Rotarians and our Guest Speaker, Janie Finlay, MP, to the meeting.

Acting Secretary and Treasurer George Manifold reported the latest Financial Report has been uploaded to the web. George also reported on the 2024 Soggy Bottom plans.

Chris Westlake reported there is enough sheep manure in stock for another month only. Another collection is planned for 21st or 22nd October.

Men's Shed has a shop front in Meadow Mews (previous Just Cuts) on 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th November - Buy your Christmas Gifts there to support a good cause.

Ted Burton updated the Monster Raffle was proceeding well with several large donations. Ted raised the issue of Peace Poles and recommended that we purchase 4 poles. Ted also advised that we have a stand at this year's Deloraine Craft Fair, but he needs more volunteers to assist him.

Janie Finlay gave us an overview of her life from leaving school to attaining Uni and graduating as a furniture designer which she pursued in Sydney for several years. She worked in hospitality during her time at Uni. Janie obtained a Real Estate Licence and became an Auctioneer, she was Tasmanian Auctioneer of the Year. Very interesting person with a great tribute to our club on her Face Book Page (picture page 2),

FIJI PROJECT 2023 BY VEENA TILLY

I am off to Fiji again to try and complete a big project - The housekeeping training facility at Drasa Secondary School. This was planned to be done in 2020 but due to COVID and now increased costs the final amount has left us in deficit. I had a Rotary grant to do the work but now the cost has gone up by $14,000. Any amount will assist to reach this target. (Rotary cannot contribute further funds).
