President Jan Beams

At our last meeting President Jan welcomed all Rotarians and our Guest Speaker, Veena and Denys Tilley to the meeting.

Acting Secretary and Treasurer George Manifold circulated a copy of the proposed Raffle Ticket which is well under way (awaiting Permit).

Men's Shed has a shop front in Meadow Mews (previous Just Cuts) on 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th November - Buy your Christmas Gifts there to support a good cause.

Ted Burton updated the Monster Raffle, trailer is now registered and signage is being prepared. Ted also advised that we have a stand (Rotary Tas) at this year's Deloraine Craft Fair, but he needs more volunteers to assist him on 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th November.

Judy Kingston reported she, George and Marijke Lockwood attended a 25th Anniversary Luncheon of COTA where a 90 year old lady addressed the Luncheon - she has agreed to be a Guest Speaker at our Christmas Dinner.

Veena and Denys Tilley gave us a very interesting and informative presentation, including a PowerPoint Presentation of their 18 years volunteering in Fiji. Liz has attended twice before and is planning another trip with them.
