President Jan Beams

At our last meeting President Jan welcomed all Rotarians, Marijke Lockwood, Marie and George, Bernadette Grimes, Julie and Garry and our Guest Speaker, June Hazzlewood to the meeting.

The Monster Raffle is proceeding well with good money coming in.

Ted is very pleased with the interest shown in the Raffle, he still needs members to man the sales days. Raffle will be drawn at Bunnings Kings Meadows on Sunday 17th December. We are cooking the BBQ that day.

Our next meeting is the Christmas Breakfast Meeting on Monday 18th December at 7:00am.

Guest Speaker . . .

June Hazzlewood (a 91 year old dynamo) was our Guest Speaker for the night. She spoke of her life as a teacher and her involvement with many Community Organisations in the State. She use many acronyms in her incredible and inspiring address to the club, unfortunately she claimed she did hear the bell for her to stop, but she had a captive audience. Congratulations June.

Nursing Home Presentations . . .

Judy Kingston and Liz Bulman went to Calvary Sandhill Nursing Home, Peace Haven Home and Glenara Lakes to deliver 11 Fluffy Dogs and Cats for the dementia residents. They were very well received and one of the delighted residents disappeared with one of them before we left!

We couldn't see all the residents at the first 2 homes, but Glenara Lakes let us visit the unit. Marie Bird would have been proud of us as she was enthusiastic about helping the aged care residents in homes. This will be one of the ventures that we should continue delivering.
